December 9, 2011

To: General Authorities; Area Seventies; Stake, Mission, District, and Temple Presidents

Dear Brethren:

Updated Temple Recommend Books

Beginning Friday, December 9, 2011, updated temple recommend books will be sent to units when they order replacements. (Updated books are currently in English only; copies in other languages will be available as they are translated.) The old recommend books should continue to be used until they are depleted.

The First Presidency statement on “Wearing the Temple Garment” has been updated to reflect changes to instruction in Handbook 1: Stake Presidents and Bishops - 3.4.5 (2010). This statement should be read during the temple recommend interview. We are providing a copy of the updated statement and an updated version of Instructions for Issuing Recommends to Enter a Temple: For Stake and Mission Presidencies.

Stake, mission, and district presidents should ensure that bishops and branch presidents receive a copy of the updated “Wearing the Temple Garment” statement for use in temple recommend interviews.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Thomas S. Monson

*Read the "Wearing the Temple Garment" statement, included below, to each member.

Wearing the Temple Garment

Wearing the garment is the sacred privilege of those who have taken upon themselves the covenants of the temple. The garment is a reminder of these covenants and, when properly worn, will serve as a protection against temptation and evil.

It is expected that members will wear the garment both night and day, according to covenants made in the temple. Members should not adjust the garment or wear it contrary to instructions in order to accommodate different styles of clothing, even when such clothing may be generally accepted. The garment should not be removed, either entirely or partially, to work in the yard or for other activities that can reasonably be done with the garment worn properly beneath the clothing.

Members who have made covenants in the temple should be guided by the Holy Spirit to answer for themselves personal questions about wearing the garment. These sacred covenants are between the member and the Lord, and the proper wearing of the garment is an outward expression of an inner commitment to follow the Savior Jesus Christ.
